5-day Summer Course (Germany) for cellists

Date: 10 - 14 August 2020
Location: Kloster Frenswegen, Germany

This five-day Cello Summer Course in Frenswegen, Germany will take place from 10 to 14 August 2020.

The location is Monastery Frenswegen near Nordhorn, less than a two-hour car ride away from Amsterdam, and close to the Dutch-German border, near Oldenzaal. For more information, visit: www.kloster-frenswegen.de. The course will take place if at least six cellists attend. Minimum age of cellists is 16.

Every day, there will be a combination of playing together/ensemble, working on technique and a workshop. In the evenings, you can choose to either rest or practice some more (or play with others), without a teacher present. For those who wish to take more lessons, scheduling a private lesson with me after dinner is a possibility as well.

The 'Welcome' takes place at 11 am on the 10th of August and the course ends after lunch on the 14th, by presenting everything we would like to play.

The course fee, including full board and a single room, is 950.00 per person. PILOT FEE 850.00 Euro! The rooms are suited with a new shower and toilet. Would you like to book a shared room, to share with (non-attending) family members or your partner? Prices available upon request.

You can sign up on my website.

I'm very much looking forward to this course! Tell your cello playing friends about it and attend the course together!

Warm regards,
Scarlett Arts

Cello Weekend for all levels Havelte (Drenthe, NL)

Date : July 11 & 12, 2020
Locatie : Rijksweg Noordzijde 7
Havelte (Drenthe, NL)

This year, the fourth Cello Weekend in Havelte, Drenthe will take place on the 11th and 12th of July 2020.

Ellis Moorman and Scarlett Arts will be teaching. Cellists are divided into three groups: beginners (able to play in extended first position), intermediate and advanced. The weekend starts at 10.30 am on Saturday the 11th and we will continue to work till 5.45 pm, when we'll break for a delicious dinner. Cellists will need to find their own accommodation for the night. On Sunday, we will start at 10 am and wrap up at around 4.30 pm, with a couple of drinks and some socialising.

There is a maximum number of attendees of 24 cellists, divided over 3 groups of 8 cellists each. Every year, all spots are filled months before the weekend takes place, so do not hesitate to sign up. There are two teachers and three groups. This means that while the other two groups are being taught, one group has some time available to practice by themselves or together. The sheet music will be sent out in spring.

All groups are taught by both Ellis and Scarlett. Besides playing together and ensemble work, there is some room for trouble shooting: we will help you with any questions you may have, either musically or technically.

The fee for the Cello Weekend is 190 Euro for those who are subscribed to my cello blog and have received this digital flyer in their email. For others, the fee is 199 Euro. This includes two lunches, the dinner on Saturday and snacks.

As in previous years, there is the possibility to bring a guest to dinner on Saturday. For adults, we ask a contribution of 10 Euro, it's free for children.
